IN AND FOR THE COUNTY OF MARICOPA

IN THE MATTER OF THE EXPENDITURE	)	ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER
OF MONIES FROM THE CONCILIATION	)	NO. 2013-156
COURT	)

The Conciliation Court Fund having been established by Superior Court Administrative Order No. 95-043 on June 12, 1995, pursuant to A.R.S. § 25-303; and

A.R.S. § 25-303 having been subsequently repealed by the Legislature, but A.R.S. § 12-284(E) continues to direct that filing fees in family law cases be paid to be used to carry out the purpose of the conciliation court proscribed in A.R.S. § 25-381.01 to -281.24.

Accordingly,

IT IS ORDERED continuing a Conciliation Court Fund to receive and administer funding paid pursuant to A.R.S. § 12-284(E).

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Presiding Judge of the Superior Court shall administer the fund and authorize the spending of the monies in the fund to carry out the purposes of the Conciliation Court.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the monies in the fund may be expended by the Office of Court Administration to fund the costs of the staff employed by the Superior Court in the Conciliation Services Department, and not otherwise provided for by funding from Maricopa County.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the monies in the fund may be expended by the Office of Court Administration to fund the costs of expenses incurred by the staff employed by the Superior Court in the Conciliation Services Department during the course of their duties as required by statutes and court rules, not otherwise provided for by funding from Maricopa County. Expenses for travel will be separately authorized on an individual basis by the Presiding Judge.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Office of Court Administration shall provide the Presiding Judge and the Family Court Presiding Judge with an accounting of the monies received into the fund and expended from the fund on a monthly basis.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED terminating Superior Court Administrative Order No. 95-043.

Dated this 23th day of August, 2013.
